WHOLE BODY SEEMED IN ONE AWFUL PAIN

Morse, La.—Mrs. L. P. Lambert, who has been a popular school-teacher here for several years, recently told a visitor of her interesting experiences with Cardui.

"Just before my . . . came on," said Mrs. Lambert, "I would ache all over. My feet, my toes, my arms, hands, head—my whole body seemed to be in one awful pain. I would grow so nervous that I could not hold a cup in my hand. My husband would have to hold my coffee for me to drink. Last fall I was in such a bad condition that I had to spend about three days in bed every month. It seemed to me that I was on my last go-round."

Then one day, said Mrs. Lambert, she happened to read about Cardui and the experiences of some women who had been helped by it. "I felt that Cardui might help me if I tried it," she continued, "for I had been suffering with similar troubles to those mentioned there. I had heard of Cardui all my life and I knew many women who said they had been helped by it. The very next day I began to take it.

"Very soon after, I began to notice my improvement. I kept on till I felt like a different woman. I gained in weight from 98 pounds to 116 and felt better than I had in years. I took six bottles right along and found it a splendid tonic. My suffering was partly due to a run-down condition and the Cardui stimulated my appetite and helped me to gain the strength I needed. I take a bottle every now and then, even now, just as a tonic to keep up my strength, but I am in better health than I have been in for years."

All druggists sell Cardui. Try it. E 10

Lynchburg.—The "pass nuisance" was the subject of an address by W. C. Saunders, Richmond, manager of the Virginia State Fair, and of discussion by several members at the meeting here of the Virginia Association of Fairs. Suppression of the pass privilege entirely, as was said to be the custom with the Illinois State Fair, was one of the suggestions offered. Co-operation by fair officials with the five-year program of agricultural development of the State agricultural advisory council was urged by J. R. Hutcheson, of the V. P. I. extension division.

* * *

Danville.—Lloyd Bray, 30, was shot and killed near Shiloh Grove by Howard Buckner, 25, at the latter's house following a quarrel between the two men. Buckner was lodged in Yanceyville jail and has refused to make a statement. John Hamlet, with whom Buckner lived, and who is described as being the only eyewitness, also has declined to make any statement until he is called to the witness stand. Bray was shot down, it is alleged, on the porch by a shotgun. John Bray, the victim's father, who hastened to the scene gave the alarm after, it is alleged, he had been warned at the point of a gun by Buckner not to approach the house.

* * *

Winchester.—Rev. W. G. Fulcher, Washington, D. C., said to be a national Ku Klux Klan lecturer, was not allowed to speak in the courthouse auditorium, as had been extensively advertised by some local representatives. When advertisements appeared, announcing that the minister would speak here, the committee on buildings and grounds of the board of supervisors at once busied itself with an inquiry as to who authorized the announcement, with little or no results. It was stated that the auditorium was donated to the Salvation Army several years ago for its exclusive use and not to the Ku Klux Klan.

* * *

Winchester.—Brooke Gap has laid claim to the youngest bear-hunting champion in the country in the person of 13-year-old Baylor Custer, who not only shot and killed a bear that had taken refuge in a tree, but took laurels from his grandfather, George Custer, one of the most noted bear hunters of that region. They had spent several hours hunting the bear, and their dogs finally treed the animal in a tree, where it was found perched among the branches. Custer aimed and pulled the trigger of his trusty gun, but for some reason it failed to go off. Then his grandson leveled his rifle at the bear, and one shot brought brain to the ground dead. The bullet had gone entirely through the bear's body and lodged in the tree, from which young Custer cut it with a knife. The bear weighed about 250 pounds, it was said.

* * *

Newport News.—Newport News will vigorously contest the move of the New England ports, sponsored by Senator Butler and Representative Gardner, to abolish the 3 cents freight differential allowed Hampton Roads and other Middle Atlantic ports by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

* * *

Danville.—The total number of births in Danville during the year 1924 was 637, and the total number of deaths was 349, according to statistics released by City Health Officer R. W. Garnett.

Lesson for February 1

THE VINE AND THE BRANCHES

LESSON TEXT—John 15:1-17.

GOLDEN TEXT—"He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit."—John 15:5.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Being Friends of Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Vine and the Branches.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Fruit-Bearing Lives.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Union With Christ.

Under the beautiful allegory of the vine and the branches Jesus set forth the spiritual oneness of Himself and His disciples.

I. The Relationship of Jesus and the Father to the Disciple (vv. 1-3).

1. Jesus the Source of the Disciple's Life (v. 1). He is the true vine. Through the incarnation Jesus identified Himself with humanity, and by virtue of His atoning death and resurrection it is possible for the believer to be a partaker of His life so that between the disciple and his Lord there is a community of life. As the vine pours its life into the branch, so Christ pours His life into the believer. Our salvation is eternal life because it is the life of the eternal Son in us.

2. The Father His in His Hands the Discipline of the Disciple (v. 1). The Father is the husbandman." Just as the culture of the vine is in the hands of a husbandman so the discipline of the believer's life is in the hands of the Father. In this disciplinary process he

(a) Removes the unfruitful branch (v. 2). He does not take the trouble to prune the fruitless branch. The nominal church member, the mere professor, He removes.

(b) Purges the fruitful branch that it may produce more fruit (v. 2). He restrains our natural tendencies and desires in order that the virtues of the Lord, the fruits of the Spirit, may shine forth.

3. The instrument by which the pruning is accomplished is Jesus' words (v. 3). The disciples already were cleansed by Christ's words, for Judas the traitor had been cast out. Through faith in Christ's words the disciple is a mutual abiding, the disciple in Christ and Christ in the disciple. It is Christ's life expressing itself through the believer. The one thus indwelt by Christ will bear much fruit. So great is the discipleship of the Lord with lifeless, unfruitful branches that they are to be "cast forth," "withered," even burned (v. 6).

2. Christ's Words Abide in Us (v. 7). So mighty is the power of the one who abides in Christ and in whom his words abide that Heaven can withhold no gift from him.

III. The Exalted Issue of a Fruitful Life (vv. 8-17).

1. The Glorification of the Father (v. 8). Through much fruit-bearing, the Father will be glorified (Matt. 5:16).

2. Credentials of Discipleship (v. 8). The only way to prove that one is a child of God is to work out the character of God in one's acts and service.

3. Abiding in Christ's Love and Keeping His Commandments (vv. 9, 10). The way to abide in Christ's love is to keep His commandments. The one who neglects the words of Christ neglects his love. It is folly to talk of being in the love of Christ while disobeying His teachings.

4. Fulness of Joy (v. 11). The way to have fulness of joy is to have Christ's joy in us.

5. Loving one another (vv. 12, 13). The one who abides in Christ and has the life of Christ flowing into him will have a life of love, will love his fellowmen, especially his brother in Christ.

6. Friends of Christ (vv. 14, 15). Christ's friends do whatsoever He commands. Being this obedient He takes us into His confidence and makes known unto us the Heavenly Father's will.

7. Perpetual Fruit-Bearing in Love, With Power in Prayer (vv. 16, 17).

Physical Vigor

Physical weakness is not a sign of spiritual power. In all other things considered, the man or woman who enjoys physical vigor will be able to accomplish more than those who are puny and ill.

How Many?

"How many," asks Jeremy Taylor, "are busy in the world gathering together a handful of thorns to sit upon?"

Our Fears

What we fear most is not today's trouble, but that which may happen tomorrow.

VERA

How many readers of the Times-Virginian saw the eclipse of the moon Sunday evening? It was not advertised in the papers as was that of the sun on Jan. 24th, consequently not many were looking for it; but that made no difference with the moon; She passed majestically under the shadow regardless of whether she were noticed or ignored. "The Heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament showeth his handiwork" Psalms 19-1.

Well, valentines come next on the tapis; if you haven't a valentine for your best girl don't lose any time in getting it—She's expecting one.

Dr. Christian, the only doctor within a radius of ten miles has left us, and located in Appomattox—We never miss the water till the well runs dry" a trite though true saying. We can't blame the doctor for wanting to get away from this "mud hole" but in the meantime what are we going to do for a doctor?

Miss Julian Crow has re-from school on account of sore throat.

Arnold Childers has accepted a position with Piggly Wiggly Store No. 2 in Lynchburg—we wish you success Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace of Gladstone, announce the arrival of a son at their home—"grandpa Nuttycomb", see?

Mrs. Emma Nowlin has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walker O'Brien, the past two weeks.

Mrs. Turner Wilkerson of Lynchburg, was called here by the serious illness of her little niece, Nancy Megginson.

We regret to report the indisposition of Mr. "Buster" Megginson.

Mrs. Lula Beale has been suffering the past week with rheumatism.

Little Fay Childers was on the sick list last week, but is about well now.

Nancy, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Megginson is critically ill at this writing. She has passed the "9th" day though and her parents and friends have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. Lawrence Hatcher is very much under the weather at this writing—we hope it is nothing serious.

We have just received news of the passing away of Mrs. Tyler Coleman. She had been a great sufferer from rheumatism for about 20 years. She bore her affliction with great patience, as a good soldier of the Lord should. Her bereaved ones have the comfort of knowing she is at rest "Asleep in Jesus", Blessed Sleep.

We see by the papers that a pound loaf of bread is selling in Richmond for 5c. We wonder why, the discrimination in prices—It sells for 8c a loaf. Is wheat higher here than in Richmond? The advertisers harp on "patronizing your home town"; but if one can get things cheaper somewhere else, I say get them —even if it is at a catalog house.

EVERGREEN

Miss Effie Smith of Lynchburg, spent the week-end with her parents near this place.

Miss Elizabeth Meadows of Roanoke, was the week-end guest of her aunt, Mrs. Joel Inge.

Hunter Walker of Appomattox, was week-end guest of friends here.

The young people of this place gave Miss Beatrice Inge a suprise party Saturday night. They all report a splendid time and expect to surprise Miss Beatrice again.

Gilbert Dinkins of Damascus, West Virginia, spent the week-end with his parents here.

Mrs. T. T. Evans is on the sick list. We hope her a hasty recovery.

Our hearts go out in sympathy to the family of W. C. Farrar in their sad bereavement, the death of their wife and mother.

ROCKS NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hamilton and Mr. Joe Hamilton are on the sick list.

Herman Marsh of Lynchburg spent last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Marsh.

Walker Dinkins is going to have the road dragged from his home to R. R. crossing 174 Monday.

Miss Ethel Anderson is in Lynchburg, where she has had her tonsils removed. We hope she will soon be well and back with her friends.

Regardless of the mud, there was a very interesting Sunday School at Old Rocks church Sunday.

Our sympathy is for Mr. Willie Farrar in the loss of his good wife and brother. May God be his comforter now in this time of trouble.
